

NEWS RELEASE: Sept. 22, 2011

Kessinger elected VP of state association

Greene County Assessor Rick Kessinger has been elected vice president of the Missouri State Assessors Association. The election took place earlier this month at an annual conference convened by the State Tax Commission and the Missouri State Assessors Association in Branson.

The vice president is a member of the association's executive board and serves as acting president-elect in the president-elect's absence. Kessinger's term runs Jan. 1, 2012, through Dec. 31, 2012. He is the first Greene County Assessor to serve on the executive board in many years.

Kessinger also serves on the association's legislative and professional certification committees.

Kessinger remains vice president of the Southwest Region of the Missouri State Assessors Association, a position he has held for several years.
