2020 real estate tax statements now available online

Greene County Collector Leah Betts is pleased to announce the 2020 real estate tax statements are now available at www.countycollector.com and paper statements will be mailed this month.

Real estate tax payments are due by December 31 and can be paid via the following methods:

- Online at www.countycollector.com
- In person at the Greene County Historic Courthouse located at 940 N. Boonville
- By mail

Greene County citizens are advised that the 2020 personal property tax calculations are still in process and will be mailed out later than normal this year. An extended due date will be assigned once the personal property statements are mailed, but the extension is only applicable to personal property and not real estate.

“This has been a challenging tax year and we appreciate everyone’s patience and understanding as we work to complete this year’s cycle of statements,” said Greene County Collector Leah Betts. “As always, during this process and beyond we remain dedicated to providing the highest level of customer service that citizens have come to expect and deserve from the Collector’s Office.”

###

Greene County is the State of Missouri's fourth most populous county, serving more than 275,000 people (2010 census). Its mission is to provide all citizens of Greene County, including those in its cities, a safe and thriving community through excellent customer service, unparalleled dedication, and the efficient use of taxpayer dollars. The Greene County Commission is the executive body of Greene County operating under guidelines established in the Revised Statutes of the State of Missouri. Within that authority the Commission enacts ordinances, resolutions and policies, supervises the activities of county departments, fixes salaries, adopts the annual budget, provides for construction and other services, and conducts hearings on planning and zoning matters.
