Father Convicted of Child Abduction

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – Greene County Prosecuting Attorney Dan Patterson announces that Junero P. Agcaoili, 40, was found guilty on Monday, April 2nd, 2012, by a Greene County Jury of three counts of child abduction. The defendant was convicted for taking his three minor children to Ramstein Air Force Base in Germany and failing to return them to Missouri in violation of a Greene County court order. Local and federal agencies aided in the return of the children from Germany. The jury deliberated for approximately forty minutes before returning its verdict.

The jury trial was presided over by The Honorable Calvin Holden. The defendant was sentenced by the jury to thirty days in the Greene County Jail on each count.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Ami Miller. It was investigated by the Willard Police Department and Detective Robert Bell was the lead investigator assigned to the case. The return of the children was facilitated by the U.S. Marshals Service, the U.S. Department of State, the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and the U.S. Consulate General Frankfurt.
