

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 1, 2021

Mr. Brent Johnson was officially sworn into office as the next Greene County Assessor on Wednesday, September 1st, 2021. He is a 5th generation native of Greene County, graduate of Glendale High School, received his B.S. in Cartographic & Geospatial Sciences from Missouri State University, and is a Certified GIS Professional.

Johnson brings more than 20 years of experience in strategic planning and implementation of technology in working with and managing at the municipal, county, state, federal level, foreign governments, and in the private sector, including many Fortune 500 companies. He has been married for 21 years and has four children and is an active volunteer in our community as a leader with the Boy Scouts of America, having earned the prestigious Silver Beaver Award for his service and impact on youth in our community. He has previously served on numerous local, national, and international boards.

When asked about taking office, Mr. Johnson said, "I look forward to building stronger partnerships and positive dialogue with community leaders, state officials, and other county departments. I was elected by the citizens of Greene County to serve the people and that's just what I plan to do. Under my care, the Office of Assessor will deliver the best customer service possible."

###

Greene County is the State of Missouri's fourth most populous county, serving more than 275,000 people (2010 census). Its mission is to provide all citizens of Greene County, including those in its cities, a safe and thriving community through excellent customer service, unparalleled dedication, and the efficient use of taxpayer dollars. The Greene County Commission is the executive body of Greene County operating under guidelines established in the Revised Statutes of the State of Missouri. Within that authority the Commission enacts ordinances, resolutions and policies, supervises the activities of county departments, fixes salaries, adopts the annual budget, provides for construction and other services, and conducts hearings on planning and zoning matters.
