Greene County Collector’s Office Warns of Tax Scam

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – The Greene County Collector’s Office is warning citizens of a tax scam that the office has been made aware of.

This scam came in the mail and requests that seniors return their name, phone, address, age and age of spouse and then will sell this information. It is a noted scam in most states and looks similar to a Greene County tax receipt or a state tax document.

The above form is not from the Collector’s Office. Update forms from the Greene County Collector’s Office are located on the back of yearly tax statements for voluntary convenience of updating addresses, phone, or email only and the only address where the Collector’s Office would send information from or request response to is Collector of Revenue, Allen Icet 940 N Boonville Ave Springfield MO 65802. The Collector's Office does attempt to research and re-send mailings which also includes a form to update mailing information. The Collector’s Office will never collect personal information such as birthdates, social security numbers, income information, marital or income status, etc. Always call to verify at 417-868-4036 if there is ever any question.

Greene County is the State of Missouri’s fourth most populous county, serving approximately 295,000 people. Its mission is to provide all citizens of Greene County, including those in its cities, a safe and thriving community through excellent customer service, unparalleled dedication, and the efficient use of taxpayer dollars. The Greene County Commission is the executive body of Greene County operating under guidelines established in the Revised Statutes of the State of Missouri. Within that authority the Commission enacts ordinances, resolutions and policies, supervises the activities of county departments, fixes salaries, adopts the annual budget, provides for construction and other services, and conducts hearings on planning and zoning matters.
