Springfield, MO – On Friday, April 29, the Greene County Commissioners and local small business owner Lyle Foster will cut the ribbon on a new location for Big Momma's Coffee & Espresso Bar located in the Greene County Judicial Courts Building, 1010 N. Boonville Ave.

“It is one of the most fundamental forms of economic development when a locally owned small business like Big Momma's can build on an opportunity to expand to a new location and grow,” said Greene County Presiding Commissioner Bob Cirtin. “We are also pleased to have this welcoming amenity for the large volume of people who utilize the Judicial Courts facility each day. For example, there can be hundreds of people coming into the building throughout a month for jury duty.”

“All of us at Big Momma's Coffee and Espresso Bar are looking forward to being a part of the Greene County justice center,” said business owner Lyle Foster. “We are very grateful for this opportunity and continue to thank the community for their support.”

The new location will be open weekdays from 7:30 am to 2:00 pm. All of Big Momma's coffee and espresso drinks, as well as smoothies and pastries, will be available starting the week of May 4th. Management plans to start serving sandwiches and salads at the location the week of May 11th.
