

NEWS RELEASE: Feb. 18, 2011

County offices closed Monday for Washington's Birthday

Greene County offices and courts will be closed Monday, Feb. 21, in observance of Washington's Birthday. The Greene County Clerk's Office, however, will remain open Monday for absentee voting for Tuesday's Springfield Primary Election.

George Washington, first president of the United States, was born on Feb. 22, 1732, in the colony of Virginia. Washington's Birthday, commonly referred to as Presidents Day, is both a federal and a state holiday in Missouri, observed on the third Monday in February. A complete list of state holidays may be found at <http://oa.mo.gov/pers/2011StateHolidays.htm>
