

DATE: August 6, 2015

Greene County Employees Participate in United Way Day of Caring

Springfield, MO – Greene County employees, including the Greene County Commission, recently participated in a United Way of the Ozarks Day of Caring by volunteering at The Salvation Army during their back to school assistance program. Volunteers distributed backpacks and school supplies and assisted children in collecting vouchers for shoes and clothing.

###