Discussion:

Temperatures will continue to drop throughout the day on Monday with a wintry mix of a sleet, freezing rain, and snow is likely across portions of the region. The greatest timeframe for wintry mix to occur will be between 6 AM to 3 PM. In addition to wintry mix, winds will gust 30 to 40 mph resulting in wind chills in the teens on Monday afternoon. Monday night wind chills will make it feel like single digits. This cold air will stick around through Tuesday.

Travel Issues:

Impacts: Some roads and bridges could get slick. The hazardous conditions could impact the commute Monday morning.

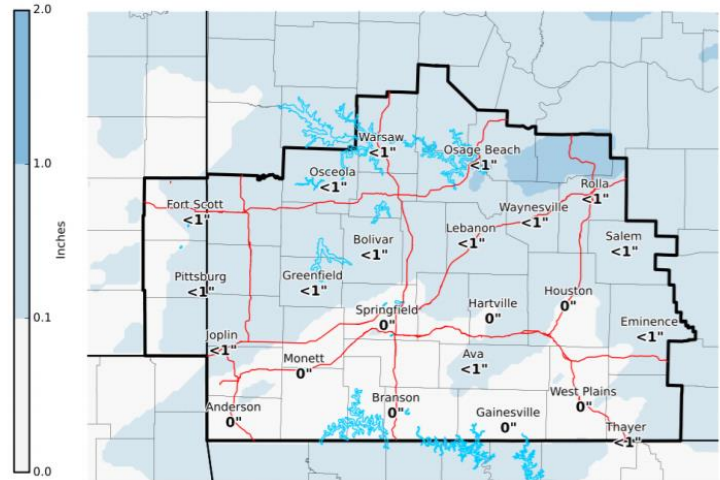

Preparedness Considerations: Consider a winter storm kit for your car. Winterize your vehicle. Pay close attention to upcoming weather information. Watch for social media posts from OEM and affiliated partners.
