Collector Allen Icet announces Collector's office open with limited staff.

Springfield, MO – Greene County Collector Allen Icet announced today the Collector's office will be open to the public but with limited staff.

Taxpayers can still use the Collector website at <https://greenecountymo.gov/collector/> to look up statements, find receipts, and pay taxes. In addition, the Assessor's office remains open for assessment adjustments and the Clerk's office will be available to print Tax Statements if there are changes to a taxpayer's assessments.

Taxpayers that need further assistance are encouraged to contact the Collector's office via email (collectorhelp@greenecountymo.gov), or by leaving a voice mail at: 417-868-4036. A member of the Collector's office team will follow up on those contacts as soon as possible.

Greene County is the State of Missouri's fourth most populous county, serving more than 275,000 people (2010 census). Its mission is to provide all citizens of Greene County, including those in its cities, a safe and thriving community through excellent customer service, unparalleled dedication, and the efficient use of taxpayer dollars. The Greene County Commission is the executive body of Greene County operating under guidelines established in the Revised Statutes of the State of Missouri. Within that authority the Commission enacts ordinances, resolutions and policies, supervises the activities of county departments, fixes salaries, adopts the annual budget, provides for construction and other services, and conducts hearings on planning and zoning matters.
