

The Health Department

Anna Kremer, Public Information Officer
Office of Communications and Outreach

Some history...

What do we do today?

Environmental Health

Food Safety

Animal Control

Water Safety

Lead Testing

Communicable Disease

Epidemiology

Immunizations

STI Clinic

Laboratory Services

Tuberculosis Program

Maternal Child Health

WIC

Family Connects

Chronic Disease Prevention

Jail Diversion Program

Revive

InBalance

Administration

Health Operations

Communications and Outreach

Community Health Strategy

Emerging Public Health

What is the impact?

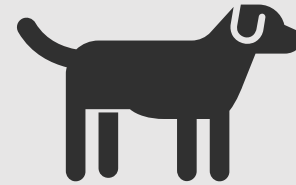

Environmental Health YTD

Food Safety

2,549 food inspections

18 imminent public health risks mitigated

Animal Control

10,936 calls received

Communicable Disease YTD

Epidemiology

- 2,134 case investigations
- Zoonotic cases represent 2/3 of cases investigated

Immunizations

- 2,319 vaccines administered
- Vaccines for Children program represents largest proportion generally
- Q4 shows an increase in flu vaccinations

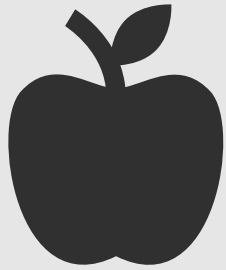

STI Clinic

- 2,225 patients seen in our clinic for testing or treatment
- 210 patients received treatment

Laboratory Services

- 7,800 laboratory tests run

Maternal Child Health YTD

WIC

Over 6,000 members served per month
Between $390,000 and $440,000 in benefits redeemed

Family Connects

281 families completed the program
Over 650 referrals to community partners

Questions?