

SERVANT LEADERSHIP: LEADING BY SERVING OTHERS

Presented by Amanda, Amanda, and Christian with Greene County

- Leadership that begins with serving others first
- Focuses on enabling people to grow and succeed
- Influence is used to lift others, not control them

WHAT IS SERVANT LEADERSHIP?

A series of white diagonal lines of varying lengths and thicknesses, located in the bottom right corner of the slide, creating a modern, abstract graphic element.

- Empathy & Listening
- Humility & Service
- Empowerment & Growth of Others
- Stewardship & Community Building

CORE PRINCIPLES

A series of white diagonal lines of varying lengths and thicknesses, located in the bottom right corner of the slide, creating a modern, abstract graphic element.

- ▶ "The servant-leader is servant first. It begins with the natural feeling that one wants to serve." – Robert Greenleaf

A THOUGHT TO REFLECT ON

- Asking: “What do you need from me to succeed?”
- Coaching instead of commanding
- Public praise, private correction
- Helping people feel valued and heard

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE IN ACTION

A series of white diagonal lines of varying lengths and thicknesses, located in the bottom right corner of the slide, creating a sense of motion or a stylized graphic element.

- Think of a leader who served you well.
- What made them different?
- How can we model that today?

REFLECTION

Several thin, parallel white lines of varying lengths and orientations are positioned in the bottom right corner of the slide, creating a modern, abstract graphic element.

- Choose one servant leadership habit to practice
- Listen deeper, serve first, lift others
- Small actions build powerful culture

CALL TO ACTION

Several thin, white, parallel diagonal lines are positioned in the bottom right corner of the slide, extending from the bottom edge towards the right edge.
