Scott Leiendecker Brings "Poll Workers Are U.S." Campaign to Greene County Tuesday

Former St. Louis election director to join County Clerk Shane Schoeller in recognizing Marjorie Shelton's more than 70 years of service and thanking local poll workers.

Springfield, MO - Scott Leiendecker, former St. Louis election director and founder and chairman of Liberty Vote and KNOWiNK, will visit Greene County on Tuesday, October 27, as part of his "Poll Workers Are U.S." campaign to thank the people preparing to make the November 3 general election possible.

Leiendecker will join Greene County Clerk Shane Schoeller at 10:45 a.m. at the Public Safety Center, 330 W. Scott St. in Springfield, during a poll-worker training session. Together, they will recognize longtime election judge Marjorie Shelton's more than 70 years of service and thank the local poll workers preparing to serve their neighbors on Election Day. Members of the media are invited to attend.
