31st Judicial Circuit and Greene County Announce Bill Prince Appointed To Serve as Family Court Administrator and Chief Juvenile Officer

Springfield, MO – Bill Prince was appointed by the Court en banc of the 31st Judicial Circuit to serve as Family Court Administrator and Chief Juvenile Officer on April 13, 2016.

Prior to assuming those duties Prince had served as Legal Counsel for the Greene County Juvenile Office for eighteen years, representing the juvenile office in all matters including abuse and neglect cases, delinquency cases, termination of parental rights cases and appeals. Prince has been an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Missouri since 1983.

“Bill has served in a stellar manner as Acting Juvenile Officer and Family Court Administrator over the last eight months,” said Presiding Judge Tom Mountjoy. “The entire Court is confident in his continuing ability to provide effective leadership to the Greene County Juvenile Office. Our congratulations and thanks to Bill Prince. Our continuing thanks as well to all who serve so admirably as part of the Juvenile Division.”

“Prince’s professional experience and his incredible work ethic make him an ideal choice for these responsibilities,” said Greene County Presiding Commissioner Bob Cirtin. “This is an outstanding appointment.”
