

Black Family Connections in Missouri Death Certificates 1910 – 1964*

*Previous volumes of Black Families of the Ozarks are on the Springfield/Greene County Library District website.

Thanks to Elaine Graham Estes for furnishing some biographical information.

On the Missouri Secretary of State's website are currently [2015] death certificates from 1910 to 1964 of people who died in Missouri. Although there is more information on them than is listed below the following has been given:

Name of deceased	birth/death date	father	mother
	Spouse if known	father's birthplace	mother's birthplace
	Birthplace of deceased	Place of death of deceased
	Informant	[sometimes comments]

The accuracy of the information given by the informant can vary greatly. Often little is known by the informant other than the deceased person's name and birthplace.

Death certificate forms changed over the years. Early ones have places for the deceased person's parents' birthplaces. Some forms asked for military service information. Forms had spaces for cemeteries and locations of cemeteries, funeral homes, causes of death, occupations, dates of immigration and other interesting, but sometimes unimportant, facts. Handwritten forms were sometimes very difficult to read or illegible. Information in brackets comes from other sources.

Images of original documents can currently be printed off or viewed at no charge. Always check the original document for confirmation of the information below. On the state website some names have been misread off of the death certificates. Different types of searches may be helpful if a name cannot be found in that listing. A suspicious number of birthdays are for July 4th and December 25th; especially before 1865.
