Attendees: Bob Cirtin, Harold Bengsch, Lincoln Hough, Jeff Scott, Tina Phillips, Trysta Herzog, Kevin Barnes and Cindy Stein.

Bob Cirtin informs the attendees that he received an email from a Mr. Eric Roofner that he would like to open a shoe shine stand in the Judicial Facility, where he would offer free shoe shines to Judges.

Kevin Barnes- Resource Management

The temporary jail is on schedule. The Highway department will need to deliver over 20 concrete blocks on Monday 10/16/17. The judicial boilers are in and functioning with minimal issues. Cox 10th floor renovations is on track to finish on 11/23/17 as of now. Juvenile detention is having an issue with roaches and the problem is being fixed. The Juvenile Office main building is having an issue with the basement floor bathroom, the lift pump is out so for now it is closed until it's fixed.

Bob Cirtin adjourned the meeting.
