Jeff Scott-Budget Office

Plans to attend a court hearing today 06/13 at 10:30 a.m. in Judge Jensen's court room in regards to the county city lawsuit.

Downtown Champions invoice was received for 4k dollars. We paid the bill last year however it was decided earlier in the year we would not pay it this year so Jeff has drafted an email to send to Rusty Worley and will discuss with Commissioner Cirtin if it is an asset to the people or not. Jeff and Tina are currently working on budget projections, may need midyear budget adjustment. As of today 4 projections have been turned in. Tina spoke that out of county numbers are up 302 inmates today and were 130 as of last week. Commissioner Harold Bengsch would like a line graph to show where and why there is such a large influx. Jeff Scott will have Tina Phillips reach out to pretrial to find out the requested information.

Trysta Herzog-Director of Communications

Informed the Commission about The Great Game Subcommittee meeting and about topics that were discussed in the meeting. There is a deficit in knowledge of what The Great Game of Business is amongst employees so they are looking for ways to increase participation.

Commissioner Cirtin joined the meeting at 9:05 and was brought up to speed about what has already been discussed in the meeting. Commissioner Cirtin addressed the topic of Downtown Champions, and upon discussion feels it would be appropriate to not pay the invoice and consider it again next year as we do not have it in the budget currently.

Trysta reminded the commission that the Agriculture Tour will take place on 10/27.

Meeting ended at 9:20 a.m.
